About

What if you discover that love is not enough?

Set in present-day Los Angeles and New York City, Conversations with My Divorce Attorney is a fast-paced 90-minute 2-hander about a fiery NYC Millennial and her savvy, seasoned LA Divorce Attorney who strike up an unlikely connection as they each navigate love, loss and never letting go. It's a comedy till it's a drama.

The production is reflected in our unique virtual reading of Suzanne Bachner's Conversations with My Divorce Attorney that combines a dynamic, intimate and connected Zoom performance with stunning, layered and theatrical video design. Starring Kat Nardizzi and Bob Brader with narration by Ellen Ritter and video design by Chris Kateff. Original Song 'Maybe' written by Dan Siegler and performed by Deanna Kirk.

The virtual reading of Conversations with My Divorce Attorney had its world premiere on Broadway On Demand and is currently streaming on Vimeo On Demand. The stage production is available for touring and licensing.

Company

Suzanne Bachner • Playwright

is an award-winning playwright and director. Her play, CIRCLE, was called “ingenious” by The New York Times, ran for five months Off Broadway, was produced nationally, followed by a Sold Out International Tour where it was optioned for production in Australia and awarded Most Daring Show of the London Fringe. Playwriting and directing: her NYC cult hit, Icons & Outcasts which transferred to The Duplex for a six-month run; a five-month NYC run and international tour of her choose-your-own-adventure comedy, BITE; her 14-actor San Diego commission, the marriage equality epic, Brilliant Mistake, and her celebrated kaleidoscopic memoir play, We Call Her Benny, which Broadway World called “the future of theatre”. Solo show directing: Bob Brader’s trio of internationally acclaimed, multi-award-winning solo shows and Gloria Rosen’s award-winning Listen...Can You Hear Me Now? Suzanne’s own true story, The Good Adoptee, won the Best Autobiographical Script award at United Solo, has toured to the London International Fringe Festival and across the US including the 400-seat SJCC in Seattle, has been part of law and life-changing adoptee rights advocacy and enjoyed global audiences in its virtual presentations. Most recently, Suzanne’s new play, Conversations with My Divorce Attorney was presented as a unique virtual reading that ran on Broadway On Demand. Her plays have been seen at PS NBC@HERE, the National Arts Club, the Michael Weller Theatre, the Samuel French Short Play Festival, Pulse Ensemble Theatre, Zeitgeist Stage Company, Mercury Players Theatre and 20th Century Fox at the Coronet Theater in LA, among others. Other plays include Screwdrivers & Sunday Brunch, Alexandra Triptych, Don’t Let Destiny Push You Around, Jump Start, Alice Through the Looking Glass, Temptation, Sex Ed, Flirting with Reality, How Soon Is Now? and Twin Studies. Suzanne studied playwriting with Romulus Linney and Adrienne Kennedy and holds an MFA from the Actors Studio Drama School at the New School University. She is a four-time OOB Award winner, Playwright-in-Residence Emeritus at The Actors Institute, Resident Artist Emeritus at Pulse Theatre and FRIGID New York, and a member of the United Solo Academy and the Dramatists Guild.

Kat Nardizzi • Actor

is an actor and singer living in NYC. Born in Los Angeles, she spent most of her childhood growing up in a handful of states across the south. Kat got her first taste of acting at the age of 5 when she was cast as Dot the Cow in The Little Red Hen and has loved performing ever since. During and after high school, she performed and interned with the Broadway Dreams Foundation helping organize and run week-long performing arts intensives across the country alongside Broadway professionals such as Gavin Creel, Eden Espinosa, Billy Porter, and Tituss Burgess. She received her BFA in Acting from Elon University and moved to NYC in 2013. Recently, she helped workshop Scott King & Mike Perrie Jr.'s new musical, Perfectly Imperfect. As an Artistic Associate of JMTC Theatre, Kat played in a trio of lead roles Suzanne Bachner's plays: the sexy comedy CIRCLE at the APAP Conference, the virtual presentation of Birthday for the National Association for Adoptees & Parents and she workshopped and starred in the virtual reading of Conversations with My Divorce Attorney which premiered on Broadway On Demand. Other New York Theater includes The Wedding Party, Attempts On

Her Life, and The Vagina Monologues. When not in rehearsal or performing, Kat loves to powerlift and make videos about queer dating and makeup on TikTok and Instagram (follow her on both:

@katnardizzi).

Bob Brader • Actor

is an award-winning writer, actor, storyteller and monologist. Spitting In The Face Of The Devil, Bob's acclaimed solo show, has toured all over the U.S. and Canada and won 7 Best of Awards including Best Show of the London Fringe and Best Script and Best Encore at the United Solo Theatre Festival. Bob's new retelling of the story on the RISK! Podcast was called by RISK! creator and host Kevin Allison: "An absolute stunner. Bob Brader's story 'Spitting in the Face Of The Devil' is one of our best episodes ever." Bob made his international debut at the London Fringe Festival with his second solo show, Preparation Hex, a hemorrhoid tale and love story, which toured Canada and played in NYC at the Directors Company and the United Solo Festival. His new monologue, Smoker, had its world premiere on Theatre Row as part of United Solo, where it won the Best Autobiographical Show Award and went on to a highly acclaimed Canadian tour. Bob's numerous acting credits include headlining the two-actor NYC run as well as the sold-out international tour of CIRCLE (Most Daring Show, London Fringe). He was in the original cast of We Call Her Benny and performed in both the recent tour and original five-month NYC run of BITE with JMTC Theatre, for which he is Executive Director. Other New York Theatre credits include Bryan Enk and Matt Gray's supernatural theatrical serial, Penny Dreadful, at the Brick Theater (Teddy Roosevelt) and numerous DMTheatrics' productions: Girls School Vampire, Bitch Macbeth, Who in the Hell is the Real Live Lorelei Lee? and Antony and Cleopatra (Caesar, OOBRA Award). Film credits include Eat Me and DelanoCelli Productions' award-winning Brooklyn in July. Bob trained with the Stella Adler Conservatory at the Tisch School of the Arts and is a member of

is a composer, producer, and songwriter from New York City. His work combines electronic and organic elements, incorporating references to jazz, blues, and folk. These compositions are strongly influenced by musique concrète, employing a mixture of analog synthesizers, orchestration for strings, horns and woodwinds, glitch sound material, and field recordings. Siegler's collaborations with choreographer Pam Tanowitz have earned him a Bessie Award and have been performed at Central Park Summerstage, Lincoln Center Out of Doors, Danspace Project, Art Basel Miami and many other venues from Brooklyn to Buenos Aires. He and Tanowitz were awarded an EtM Choreographer + Composer Residency administered by Exploring the Metropolis. Siegler is a CAP/UCLA Artist-in-Residence. Other awards include a Composer's Fellowship to Art Omi, a WPA Virtual Commission from Works & Process at The Guggenheim, a Wildacres Composer's Residency and an Abe Olman Scholarship from The National Academy of Popular Music. At his recording studio in Chelsea, Siegler has worked with HBO, Showtime, David LaChapelle, Topic Magazine and a wide range of singer/songwriters.

Deanna Kirk • Original Song 'Maybe' Performer

Deanna's New York story begins when the producers of the Bolshoi Ballet wandered into a downtown jazz club in New York where a young Deanna was performing. They were so impressed by what they heard they bought her, her own jazz club. In 1992 Deanna's music club was born and was opened on East 7th Street and 1st Avenue. Deanna performed with some of the biggest names in jazz (Roy Hargrove, Eartha Kitt, Cecil Taylor), rock (Keith Richards, The SpinDoctors) and American culture (from Quentin Crisp to Matt Dillon and Sarah Jessica Parker to George Stephanopolous). It was there that Deanna recorded her first live jazz album, Live at Deanna's, critically acclaimed by the press and jazz fans around the world. Deanna's first studio album, Marianna Trench featured original songs as well as

Leonard Cohen and Sandy Denny favorites. Deanna has been featured in People magazine, The New York Times, Time Out, New York magazine as well as the front page of Billboard magazine. Deanna wrote and recorded her second studio album Where Are You Now for Blackbird/Elektra which also received critical acclaim. Shortly after she toured North America with Jane Siberry. Her music has been featured in such television shows as “Felicity”, “Hyperion Bay” and “Cupid” along with the film soundtracks Down To You and Me Myself I. Beautyway is Deanna’s third studio album featuring all new original material which marked her first major release on her own recording label. Deanna’s latest release is entitled Lost in Languid Love Songs where she returned to her jazz roots, featuring John di Martino on piano and Harry Allen on saxophone.
